EDWARD LYCETT, Sen., Book-Binder Polkman Hall, corner of Eleventh street and Main avenue, over Clark's Drug store, Washington, D. C.
Every style of book-binding executed, either in velvet, Turkey Morocco, Russia, or fancy colors, calendered.
Periodicals and Music neatly half-bound.
Mr. Lycett respectfully suggests to his friends that while much has been done to transmit family records, little care has been taken to preserve parental likenesses. He takes this method to inform his friends, and those desirous of perpetuating personal remembrances, that daguerotype likenesses can be obtained on the inside covers of family Bibles, presentation-books, or leather-bound albums, of which can be seen at his bindery, or he can be addressed by letter, which will be promptly attended to.

B. BUSHNELL'S SCHOOL, Thirteenth street, between F and G, Washington.
The duties of this School will commence on the 16th instant. The course of instruction will include all the branches of a complete academic education.

The number of pupils will be limited to so many as can be carefully and thoroughly instructed by the principal himself, aided only in the department of modern languages by a competent teacher.
The School Room will be furnished with desks and other furniture of the most approved style, and all arrangements will be such as are best suited to preserve order, facilitate instruction, and to promote the comfort and improvement of his pupils.

The Principal, a graduate of the University of Virginia, has had long experience in teaching, and feels warranted by his past success, in assuring those who may entrust the intellectual and moral training of their sons to his care, that their just expectations will be fully realized.

WHERE IS THE SCIENCE OF MEDICINE
—I—in the last thirty years the cities of New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, fifty thousand persons died of consumption. In Great Brittain during the same period, the mortality of consumptive persons amounts to sixty thousand.
Calomel, of course, killed every one of them.
There is no blessing like that of health, particularly when you're sick.
Important Sources of Bodily Vigor.—Exercise, temperance in eating, pure air, frequent bathing, abstinence from stimulant luxuries and the abuse of sexual passions, pure and nutritious diet.
Patent medicines will do for rats; but for men undo. The Greeks made Socrates swallow hemlock, because in that time there was no poison patent medicines.
Daily Morning Draughts to be taken early, by every person with pulmonary consumption, or inflammation in the lungs; and take a walk without fatigue.
She takes milk, one pint; Peruvian bark, finely powdered, one dram; Mucilage of gum Tragacanth, one dram. Mix, and take them all at once.
At noon, Spirit of Madioline, one fluid dram; Tincture of Gentian, one dram; Spirit of Castor one scruple; Paregoric one dram. Spirit of Nitre, half dram; Port wine, half ounce; sugar or Honey, one scruple. Mix for a dose.
At night, going to bed, Extract of Iceland moss, one scruple; Opium, half grain to one grain; or instead of Opium, add to the Iceland moss, Dover's Powder, ten grains; Gum, quantum sufficient. Dose, six pills.
This course will not cure consumption in the late stage, but is the best treatment (by part) for that disease. Woman's breast milk is recommended in the Island of Madeira, and at Malta, and is very healthy.
Physic, for the most part, is nothing else but the substitute of exercise or temperance. The sick without hope, with old chronic diseases, that other Physicians have never been able to cure, who are actually suffering, especially those attacked periodically with Chills and Fever, Rheumatism, Gout, Swellings, Coughs, Habitual running, &c., will please to call at my rooms at Mrs. Duval's, opposite Brown's Hotel.

TO CONTRACTORS.
OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS, 15th street, between F and G, Washington.
PROPOSALS will be received in this office until Saturday, the 22d of April, next, at 3 o'clock, p. m., for grading and graveling so much of Maryland avenue, between Seventh street and the Potomac bridge, as is not now graded and gravelled, as may be directed by the Commissioner of Public Buildings.

The work is to be of the best character, and to be done in accordance with the plans and specifications of the Commissioner of Public Buildings, or such person as he may appoint to inspect it; and all that is to be done, must be done by the 1st day of October next.

The contractor must excavate at least twelve inches in depth at the centre of the street, tapering off gradually to six inches in depth at the sides. Security will be required for the faithful performance of the work, and any surplus of earth or material must be deposited at such place within a reasonable distance, as the Commissioner shall designate.

Proposers will state the price per cubic yard for grading, and per superficial yard for the graveling, including gravel and all materials.

THE NEW YORK Musical Review and Choral Advocate is the cheapest and best musical paper in the world. This journal (which has heretofore been published monthly) commenced its fifth year in January, 1854, and henceforth it will be published every two weeks—on every other Thursday—thereby giving more than twice as much matter without any increase in price. Each number contains sixteen quarto pages, four of which are new music, consisting of pieces, hymn tunes, chants, anthems, dedication, and holiday pieces, and, in short, every variety of music adapted to purposes of religious worship, home and foreign, and to the home circle; all of which will be of a practical character, and such as can be sung by persons of ordinary musical attainments. In the editorial department of the Review are engaged (in addition to Mr. Cady, the former editor) gentlemen of the highest talent and ripest musical experience, among whom are George F.
Root, Wm. B. Bradbury, Thomas Hastings, and Lowell Mason; and is of course of correspond-
